

Dr. Néstor Zurita

Specialist in Orthopedic Surgery and Traumatology

ACADEMIC TRAINING:

- Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery, Faculty of Medicine, University of Granada. Promotion 1990-1996.
- Doctor of Medicine and Surgery, Faculty of Medicine, University of Granada. 13 February 2004. Outstanding cum laude

RESIDENCE OF SPECIALTY:

- Specialist in Orthopaedic Surgery. Universitario Carlos Haya Hospital Complex. Málaga. 1999-2004.

EXPERT:

- Master in Sport Traumatology. Spanish School of Sports Traumatology. San Antonio Catholic University of Murcia. Murcia. 1999-2001
- Opinion leader in arthroscopic surgery. Biomet SportMedicine. Since 2012

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

- Doctor of the Royal Spanish Swimming Federation. Since 1996 until present. Assistance at 28 international events, among which:
 - . European Championship Madrid 2004
 - . 2005 Izmir Universiade
 - . ISF World Gymnasiade
 - . 2006 Athens Thessaloniki
 - . 12th FINA World Championships Melbourne 2007
 - . 16th FINA Diving World Cup. Beijing 2008
 - . Universada. Daegu 2003
- Hospital IMED Elche. 2011 - present
- San Jaime Hospital. Torrevieja. 2004 - 2011

PARTICIPATION IN PUBLICATIONS OF INTEREST:

- 5 publications in international journals and 4 national Scientific Meetings: 90 interventions in 12 international meetings and 78 national meetings.
- 3 chapters in science books. 1 International and 2 national

OTHER MERITS:

- Prize "Manuel Clavel Nolla" to the best free communication about "swimmer's shoulder: clinical examination protocol." X National Conference of Sports Traumatology. San Antonio Catholic University of Murcia and Murcia Association of Sports Medicine. Sponsored by MAP-FRE Medicine Foundation. 2000.
- Surgical Accessit Area V Scientific Poster Competition for Resident Doctors with the poster entitled "Systematic Functional Assessment in the shoulder injury." H.R.U. Carlos Haya. Malaga, November 16, 2000.
- Fourth prize at the National Research Award Sports Traumatology "Pedro Guillen," the paper entitled: "Diagnosis Ultrasonographic with expanded vision technology (SIE-SCAPE) in the Sports Injury". Organized by the Spanish School of Sports Traumatology at the Catholic University San Antonio of Murcia and sponsored by the Council of Presidency of the Autonomous Region of Murcia. Murcia, March 24, 2001.
- First Prize for Best Oral Communication, entitled "Choosing the type of osteosynthesis in the treatment of hip fractures. Our experience in the past two years. " XXX Congress of the Andalusian Society of Orthopedics and Traumatology. Jerez de la Frontera. June 7-9, 2001.
- Second Prize at the National Research Award in Sports Traumatology "Pedro Guillen," the paper entitled: "Swimmers foot: description of a new syndrome." Organized by the Spanish School of Sports Traumatology at the Catholic University San Antonio of Murcia and sponsored by the Council of Presidency of the Autonomous Region of Murcia. Murcia, March 2005.